Director's Thanks

A massive thank you must go to the Drama Soc committee for having the faith to commission a play as audacious as this.

I'd also like to thank Kate Tozer for her help with auditions, the Drama Soc publicity team, all the other writers who put up with my constant editing and redrafting (especially Joz Norris who wrote a great scene that you'll never get to see) and Jonathon Armbruster for printing all those scripts as well as his technical brilliance.

Thanks to Jon Hyde, Rob Little, Val Baker, Alison Lock, Rosemary Petch and Jean Wills who all helped along the way.

Thanks to my brilliant co-directors who came to this project, shared and refined my vision and then joined the cast at a late stage too.

Thanks also to Maria Kivinen for being such an optimistic and organised producer. Lastly, and most importantly, an extra special thanks to my amazing committee contact; Laura Coyne.
